No. 53

Dated: 5/5/2025

Office Order

In continuation to previous office orders, it has been observed that few students were found outside the campus gate. Hence, faculty is directed to keep check on frequent absentees and ensure that nobody will go out of the campus during class timing without any permission as directed earlier.

To improve results as well as academic performance, all departments are hereby authorized to take extra classes during working days and off days for needy students and as per need. The concerned HOD will do the needful as per need and schedule timings to be duly approved from the undersigned.
